

GRADUATE STUDENTS FIELD DAY

Diversity of Iowa Agriculture

TUESDAY, JULY 27th, 2021

9:00-11:30 AM

ISU Horticulture Research Station
55519 170th Street, Ames, IA, 50010

 Directions: Three miles north of Ames on Hwy 69, turn east on 170th St. about 1.5 miles

LEARN ABOUT

Soil amendments, soil nitrogen, and water storage

Polyculture, crop-livestock integration, and agroforestry

Advanced IPM strategies in tree fruit production

PANEL

- Dan Fillius, Commercial Vegetable and Specialty Crop Specialist, ISU Extension
- Helen Gunderson, Burnett Urban Farmer, PFI lifetime member.
- Nick Howell, ISU Horticulture Research Station Superintendent
- Marcus Johnson, Apple Grower - Buffalo Ridge Orchard

THIS EVENT IS FREE, OPEN TO THE PUBLIC AND INCLUDES REFRESHMENTS.

Please RSVP by July 24

Click on this link: Register

or scan here:

Sponsored by: IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY
Extension and Outreach